Terms of Use and Privacy Policy

The project partners and UCLL (University College Limburg) who manage this e-learning platform will use the personal data collected from you for the following purposes: to provide access to e-learning, to monitor your progress with the programme, to send you news and information about REAL Alternatives.

You hereby confirm that you are consenting to the platform's use of your personal data for the aforementioned purposes(s) and are granting UCLL and the project partners permission to carry out those actions and/activities.

You may withdraw your consent at any time by contacting the project partners at ior@ior.org.uk

The project partners are committed to ensuring that all personal information collected and processed is appropriate for the stated purpose(s) and shall not constitute an invasion of your privacy. We may share your personal data only with the project partners and we shall ensure that they will hold your personal data securely and shall use it only in order to fulfill the service for which they are contracted. When there is no longer a service need, or the contract comes to an end, the third party will dispose of all personal data according to our procedures. We will never share your personal data with third parties until we have received your consent, unless we are required do so by law.

The project partners will process your data (i.e. collect, store and use) according to the requirements of the GDPR at all times and shall endeavor to keep your personal data up-to-date, ensuring its accuracy and will not keep it for longer than it is required. In some situations, there are set legal requirements for the length of time that the project will retain your personal data but usually the partners will use their discretion, ensuring that personal data is not kept outside of our usual business requirements.

We shall never be intrusive or invasive of your personal privacy and shall not ask you to provide data that is irrelevant or unnecessary and we will enact strict measures and processes to ensure that the risk of unauthorised access or disclosure of your personal data is minimised as much as possible.

We will only use your personal data for the purposes of emailing and statistical analysis related to monitoring the impact of the project or improving the materials and website.
